

A Question of Peace?

Of what importance
Are music and art
When the world
Is falling apart?
We all live in a circus tent --
We pay our bills
We swing the rent.
Someone asks me,
Oh, where is peace?
The answer --
There is no release.
I think there's but one final plan,
Man's inhumanity to man.