

Soft things would I wish for you...
 Sprinkles of sunlight with smile-glow
 Roses of sunrise

Fireplaces of the mind
 Laughtear
 Life-dew Wander wings ...

Bright things would I wish for you...
 May the cool stars of infinite evenings help you touch the hidden faces of the universe ...

Young things would I wish for you...
 May you, in your rascal wisdom,
 hear the sigh and the song
 in every drop of rain

Strong, growing things would I wish for you...
 Desires... dreams... ambitions... hopes Stretched to the highest pitch of potential tolerance

Need that leaves no denial ...

Warm, flowering things would I wish for you...

May the sun smile on your path
 As you have smiled on me
 Full free forever
 Like my faith in you ...

And, through your life,
 light, laughing things ...
 Because I love you.
